

INSTITUTE CAMPAIGN REGISTRATION

We are pleased to offer a campaign for all youth engaged in process of community building and wishing to offer service to the city of Brampton. Participating in the programmes of the Ruhi Institute enables youth to see themselves as walking a path of service.

As Abdu'l-Baha has stated, "no deed in the world is nobler than service to the common good", that "the highest righteousness" is to "arise and energetically devote themselves to the service of the masses".

There are a series of courses being offered this winter break as part of an ongoing process of personal growth and enhancing capacity to contribute to social progress.
